Tavoitteet – Learning Outcomes

At course completion, you will:

- be able to talk about some of the main features of your daily life
 - Deepening and adding to familiar Finnish 1 topics
 - Greetings, numbers, basic information, introducing yourself
 - Family
 - Talking about your day
 - Food
 - + new topics
 - Weather
 - Travel
 - Health and wellbeing
 - Celebrations
- be able to function in routine situations and make common enquiries.
- understand and be able to produce short written messages
- be able to find the main information you need from short texts on course themes
- know some of the main features of Finnish everyday life and work

Työmäärä – Workload

Teaching in group 36 x 45 minutes

Independent work 57 hours

- To successfully complete the course, you will need to do quite a lot of independent work, so make sure you've blocked out enough time (and especially energy!) out of your calendar.

Can I be absent from the Zoom sessions?

- You can miss 1–2 of our Zoom sessions and still receive the credits for the course
- If you need to miss more than 2 of our Zoom sessions, let me know. You can make up for absences with extra assignments.
- As a general rule, over 5 absences means that you can't get the course credits (though there is some flexibility here). However, you can still take the course exam and if you pass, you're eligible to participate in the next course (Finnish 3).

Kurssin sisältö – Course content

- Expanding vocabulary related to everyday life and work
- Expanding knowledge of Finnish grammar
- Practice situations related to everyday tasks and social life

Language of instruction

- English and Finnish

Study Material

- Terhi Tapaninen ja Kristiina Kuparinen: Oma Suomi 1, Chapters 6-9
 - There are two editions of Oma Suomi 1, an old and new one. We will be using both editions side by side. This is the first time I'm using the new edition for Finnish 2, so please bear with me through any confusion this may cause. If you have any doubts on what to do, don't hesitate to ask, I'm here for you.
- Extra material provided by the teacher

Please notice that you must have the book to complete the course!

Online workspace for the course: MyCourses

- MyCourses is an online learning environment
- You need an Aalto User ID to log in to the course's MyCourses workspace and participate in teaching.
- You can activate your Aalto User ID the day after the registration
