In this year's PDP challenge we will be focusing in improving the safety of aviation with the use of the latest technological advances in the fields of Artificial Intelligence and sensor fusion around passive radar technologies.

isaware

We build advanced neural networks and use machine learning to detect whichever objects and phenomena need to be identified and tracked. Applications include real time analysis of sensor data, video streams, images, and natural language processing.

isaware VISION

LTE