

Crystal Flowers in Halls of Mirrors Agreement

Agreement on student's work of art

1 Parties of the agreement

1.1 The undersigned students (later Student or Students)

AND

1.2 Aalto University Foundation sr (later Aalto)

2 Scope and Aim

This agreement covers work of art that Student has created in a Aalto University course Crystal Flowers in Halls of Mirrors: Mathematics meets Art and Architecture. The Course leader is Senior Lecturer Kirsi Peltonen. The exhibition venue is Undergraduate Centre, Otakaari 1.

3 Student is the owner of copyright

Student is the owner of the copyright to work (s)he has created. If several Students have created a work together, they own the copyright in equal parts. As owner of copyright Student may reproduce the work (s)he has created and make it available to the public, this includes that Student can make copies of the work and sell those copies.

4 Rights granted to Aalto

Students grant Aalto has the right to make the work of art available to the public by showing it in Aalto's premises.

Students grant Aalto the right to take photographs of the work. These photos may be taken included in Aalto's archive or database. Photos of the work of art may be used for Aalto's archive, research and education purposes and for communications purposes in analogue and digital media, including social media.

While using photographs Aalto shall present Student's name according to good practice either by mentioning all student names or by mentioning that work was created in the course defined in section 2. Aalto has a right to use only a part of work, e.g. a detail, if the accepted use requires this.

All other rights to the work of art remain with the Student.

Student has no right to compensation regarding uses agreed in this agreement. Other uses must be agreed with Student separately.

5. Ownership of physical work

When work of art has been manufactured by using university's materials and resources, the ownership of work of art belongs to university, unless agreed otherwise. If the ownership wants to be transferred for third party, a new agreement must be drafted between the parties in this agreement.

5 Resolution of Disputes

Parties shall solve any disputes regarding this agreement primarily by negotiating. If this does not reach result, dispute may be addressed to Helsinki district court.

6 Signatures

Parties have duly executed this agreement by signing. Parties shall receive a scanned pdf copy of the signed agreement, which is deemed as effective as an original.
