Make a conversation with your partner, in which you arrive to a party. The other is a guest and the other the hero of the day.

(p. 93)

1. Write in German 5 questions about the chapter. Take different question-words. Ask then your partner, who answers to the questions.

2. Four wins! Try to get a line of four words by saying a word in German and also try to prevent your partner from getting a line. If you say the word right, make a sign to the place of the word. After that it's your partner's turn.

3. Write at least 5 sentences, in which you tell about the picture. After that you can tell something about the picture to your partner.

(p. 94)

4. Fill in the missing words.

5. Speak with your partner about the chapter with the help of these words.

6. What do you say in these situations?

(p. 95)
