

iPipe Scenario

by Anna Kotila-Row, Sanna Vilmusenaho & Joonas Väänänen

a. setting and context of the scenario

Anna is busy, working on a computer when her phone beeps. She has received another text message. iPipe is informing her that she has over 300 messages. She decides to take a little break and clean out the messages folder.

b. description of the activity

iPipe is a tool for iPhone user to delete old text messages. iPipe generates aphorism by using random words from messages it is deleting.

c. description of the actor

Only actor in scene a is Anna. She likes to use iPipe to take a little break and still do something useful.

Anna is busy at work.

Suddenly she receives a text message.

iPipe informs her that she has over 300 messages and asks if she would like to "burn" them.

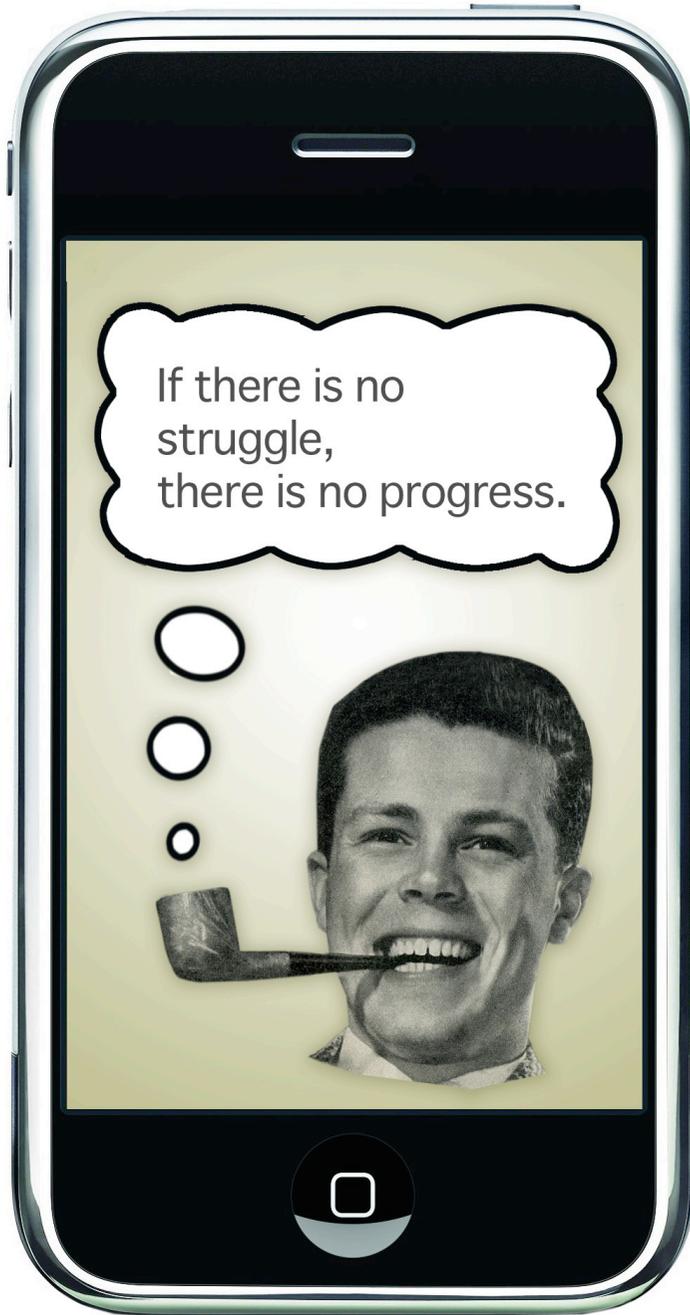

She decides to take a break.

She uses the iPipe to burn the old messages.

iPipe creates aphorisms from old text messages.

Anna is enjoying her break and laughing at the aphorism that iPipe has generated.

activity

Enjoyment of the suprizing aphorisms.

task

Deleting the text messages.

operation

Opening iPipe and using its interface.