

Takt simulation game assignment instructions

1. Access the game at <https://game.takting.com> “password” is 123456
2. The game has multiple options, including “bad design”, “bad workers” and “standard game” with time buffer or no time buffers
 - a. Practice the game first to get familiar with the game, enter your e-mail address to get game stats from Raphael Hippe
 - b. Choose three combinations of settings and play two games with each combination
 - i. Try different strategies and control actions
 - ii. Make notes on what works and what does not
3. Evaluation is based on a final report of around five pages
 - a. Describe the scenarios you chose
 - b. Reflect on your experience
 - i. What was challenging?
 - ii. Which control actions were most effective?
 - iii. What were the differences between scenarios (setting options)?
 - iv. Answer survey developed by Raphael Hippe (The developer of the game) to help improve it, append the responses to the report

Please understand that this is an early version of the game. It will be substantially improved based on feedback from students, academia and industry.