

TRUE OR FALSE?

1. It is difficult to bribe a civil servant. Also, policemen can fine anyone they like with 600 € without any evidence of a crime.
2. It is difficult to be invited to drink coffee at somebody's home.
3. The Catalans want to be independent. They also force everybody living there to speak Catalan.
4. The Basque terrorist organization ETA existed between 1959 and 2018. During its almost 60-year-long history it has killed roughly 80 000 people as a whole.
5. The Madrid region saved thousands of people in its regional nursing homes during the COVID-19 pandemic.
6. The national anthem has no lyrics.
7. The state has donated a world heritage site and thousands of monuments and real estate properties to another state without any compensation and does not want them back.
8. According to the official statistics —carried out by the CIS, which is the Centre for Sociological Research—, most Spaniards are now in favor of setting up a republic.
9. A paella can have squid ink among other things, but never any chorizo.
10. The mortality in traffic accidents is high because most people drive too fast. On the other hand, the national transplant organization is the world's best.
11. 14,6 % of the people think the government is trying to hide a connection between vaccines and autism. Spoiler: there isn't any.
