

Checklist after the first week

Make sure you feel comfortable:

- 1) presenting yourself, tell where you are from, where you live, what languages you speak
- 2) tell about your work/studies and
- 3) describe your family situation (gift, sambo, single etc.)
- 4) Discuss the matters in point 1, 2 and 3 about other people (han, hon)

Do you know the personal pronouns?

Jag

Han, hon, hen

Vi

Ni

De (dom)

Word order (especially placement of the verb)

Jag heter Anna (statement)

Anna heter jag (statement)

Heter du Anna? (yes/no question)

Vad heter du? (question with interrogative)

Word order (especially placement of negation)

Jag heter inte Anna

Jag arbetar inte här

Useful words and phrases

Ja - Yes

Nej - No

Jaha – reaction when someone gives you information (Ex. – Jag kommer från Japan. – Jaha)

Nähä - reaction when someone gives you negative information (Ex. – Jag talar inte franska. – Nähä)

Bra (Så bra! Vad bra!) = good

Lite = a little

Bara = only

Och du = and you = Du då?

Men= but

Trevligt att träffas

Vad kul! Vad roligt! = How nice!

Jag också = Me too

Såklart = förstås = of course

Vad

Varifrån

Var

Countries:

Languages:

Professions

} make sure you know the names of the ones that you find most important