

Expert level

- Leadership is not management
- Leadership is conveying a common goal in a motivating manner

↳ average level

We want to be able to identify a great leader in order to become one. We want to create links & connections between knowledge & skills learned in this class and our future work life.

LEADERSHIP IS IMPACTING OTHERS. WE HAVE GAINED EXPERIENCE & KNOWLEDGE IN LEADERSHIP IN VARIOUS SITUATIONS IN LIFE (MOSTLY SCHOOL) AND AT THE MOMENT WE CONSIDER

OURSELVES INTERMEDIATE LEADERS.

Learning basic theories <sup>and skills</sup> and being able to apply them in real life situations.

2. Running out of time

5. other people

7. experience

1. Mind set Characteristics

3. Lack of motivation

4. knowledge

6. conflicting goals

Some learning experiences in a relatively safe environment with low stakes. Enabling people to unleash their full potential in pursuing a common goal while showing example.

1. motivation

3. goals

6. Networking

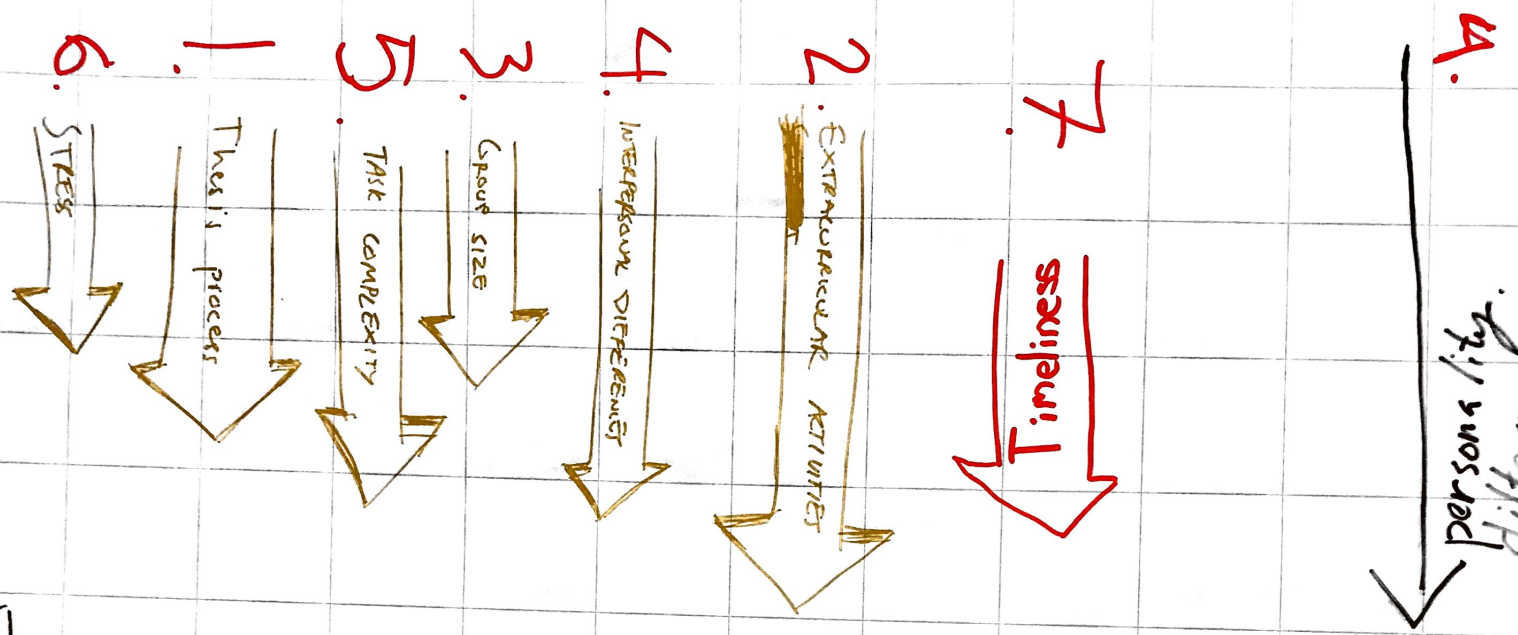

4. community

2. Skills

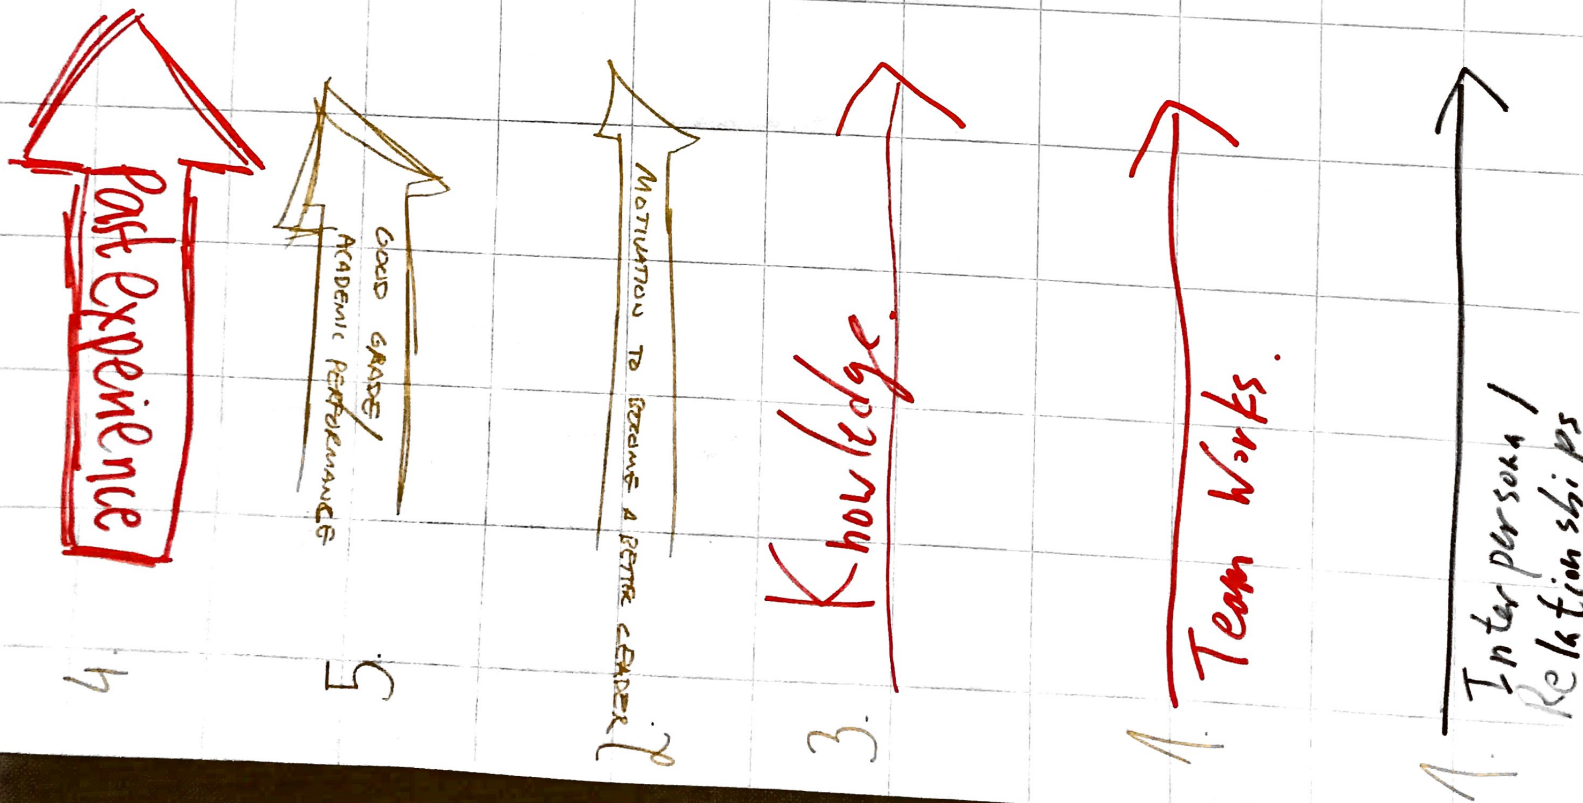

5. Career

Reasons behind leadership actions, how to motivate others, leadership communication, learn & use new leadership styles

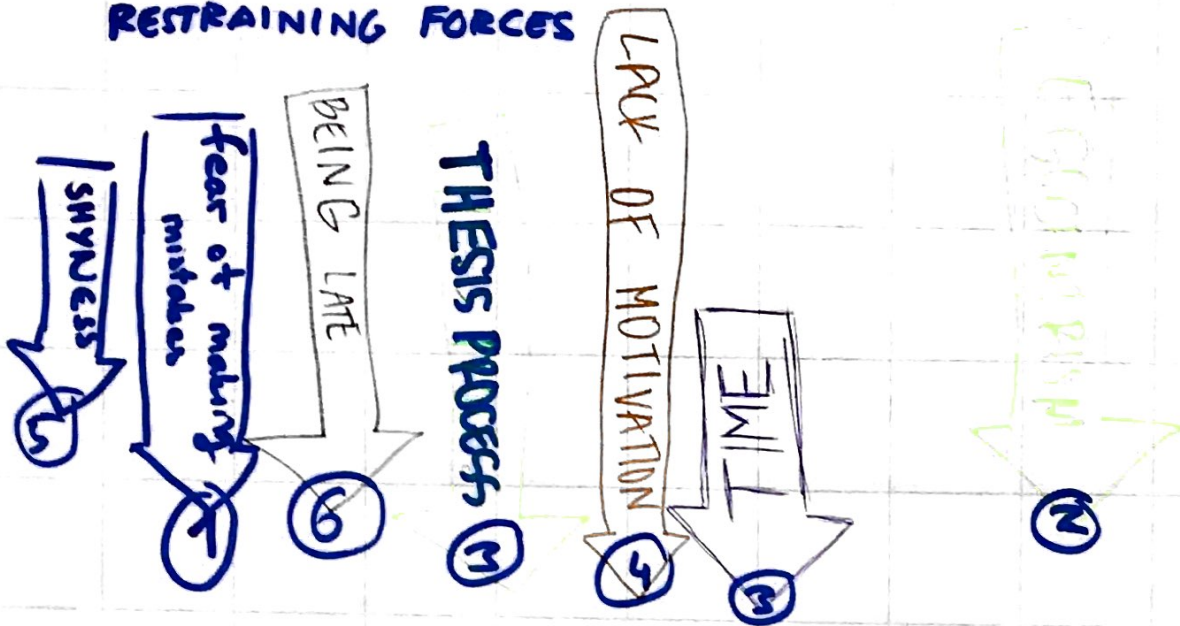

Through observing leaders, we have learned that there are many different leadership styles. Preferences differ on situation & personality

Know more about ourselves as a leader

RESTRAINING FORCES

Organizational and motivational role in a group

We all have experienced leadership but we are still learning.

DRIVING FORCES